

The Radiating Scent

in the Dhikr of the Beloved Prophet

sallaallahu alaihi wa sallam

'I am Muhammad, son of Abdullah and grandson of Abdul Muttalib. Of all the creation Allah created He made me from the best group

No man or woman from my forefathers ever met outside wedlock. Allah Taa'ala always passed me from pure loins to pure wombs'

'I was with the Prophet sallallaahu alaihi wasallam in Makkah. Once he sallallaahu alaihi wasallam left for the outskirts of the city and I went with him. Every tree or mountain we passed proclaimed 'Asslaam u alaika Yaa Rasoolallah'

'The Angel of death pleaded with the Prophet sallallaahu alaihi wasallam 'Allah ta'aala has sent me. If you wish I will take your soul and if you wish I will leave. I have been ordered to obey your command'. The Prophet sallallaahu alaihi wasallam looked towards Jibraeel who said 'Oh Muhammad, Allah Ta'aala desires to meet you', so he permitted the angel of death to take his soul'.

'Allah Ta'aala has made it haraam for the earth to eat the bodies of Prophets, the Prophets of Allah be alive and are given Rizq (nourishment)'.
'A blind man came to the Prophet and pleaded 'Supplicate that Allah gives me relief'. The Prophet sallallaahu alaihi wasallam explained 'If you want I can postpone' it and this is more better and if you want I can supplicate'. He pleaded 'Supplicate'. The Prophet sallallaahu alaihi wasallam ordered him 'Perform wudhu and perform it well, then pray 2 rakahs and supplicate 'O Allah I ask You and I have turned towards You with the waseela of Muhammad sallallaahu alaihi wasallam, the Prophet of mercy, O Muhammad, sallallaahu alaihi wasallam, with your waseela I have turned to Allah in this need of mine so that it may be fulfilled. O Allah accept his intercession in my favour'
